To the Senate Committee,

I am writing to express my vehement opposition to SB-210 and my support for mail-in voting. Voting by mail allows those who won't be able to go to the polls to participate in our democracy: working people who can't afford to take time off of work on election day, single parents who can't leave their kids alone, elderly or disabled people who physically can't stand in line for hours. If you oppose mail-in voting, you oppose a democracy that accurately represents the people.

Anyone who votes to get rid of mail-in voting will not be getting my vote in the next election. And even if others won't be able to wait in line, I sure as hell will.
