Mail-in voting should remain an option in every election in Oregon. It increases the likelihood that more people will be able to vote than in-person- only voting.

The goal should be that the highest percent of voters possible will take the time to vote.

I have enjoyed in-person voting in the past, and I would not oppose that as an adjunct to mail-in voting.

I can't help believe that this push by the Republican Party is an attempt to limit the numbers of people who vote. Their leaders have said clearly that they do better in elections with fewer voters participating!

Please do not change something that works and is simple, like mail-in voting. It works for disabled people, working families with children who have time constraints, all kinds of working, busy people who cannot make it to a polling place.

Thank you.
