I support the continuation of mail-in voting in Oregon. Mail-in voting is the most effective method of maintaining a fair and accessible franchise for all eligible voters. I believe that any attempt to curtail mail-in voting is a blatant effort to disenfranchise certain members of the electorate, and it should be fought at every level by every person who believes in democracy. Oregon's vote-by-mail system has been shown to be safe, effective, and free from tampering and controversy. There is no legitimate reason to interfere with it.
