

Submitter:	Neil Cairns
On Behalf Of:
Committee:	Senate Committee On Rules
Measure, Appointment or Topic:	SB210

This must be fought against.

Mail-in ballots are not only a powerful tool to enfranchise voters in general, but are a massive boon for the elderly and disabled communities who might otherwise struggle to reach ballot boxes on the day of the election.

The spineless, wretched cowards proposing this change are the same people who want to take control of the electoral process all over the country.