

Submitter:

Kelsey McWilliams

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I strongly oppose in-person voting as a standard voting method. Mail in voting allows me time to understand the issues and cast my votes thoughtfully and intentionally. Most importantly it allows every mail-in-ballot voter freedom to vote on their own schedule, without the time commitment that a job would impede, or a transportation burden. Mail-in ballot voting is real freedom.