

Submitter:

Andrew Mannex

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There have been no statistically significant cases of voter fraud with Oregon's mail-in ballots. If people are required to vote in person on Election Day, that day should be a holiday so that everyone has the ability to vote. Until that is the case, mail in ballots are the best option we have available to make sure that everyone has the ability to vote.