

Submitter: Lynda Spangler
On Behalf Of: L. Spangler
Committee: Senate Committee On Rules
Measure, Appointment or Topic: SJR30

I write today in opposition to SJR 30.

Expanding the requirements inhibits the democratic process that allows citizens to stop illegal and corrupt elected officials.

Most signatures are gathered by volunteers who work tirelessly to get initiatives on the ballot.

Expanding the requirements gives moneyed interests an advantage because it is easier to oppose a campaign rather than solicit support.

It is important that issues are on the ballot so that voters can be more aware of what is going on in government.