I am sorry to say this, but Oregonians that truly love this state and love the rule of law need to have an avenue to petition the government to a redress of grievances. This is the one avenue for an individual like me to petition. I and others are not often represented in either house of the legislature because of partisan politics or simply greed. We should actually lower the number of signatures and "definitely not" have a requirement for equal representation from all districts. The minor party should never be inhibited from expressing themselves or you have tyranny, we are currently tittering on.
