

Submitter:

Heather Maharry

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SJR30

This measure would take democratic power away from the people by making it too difficult and expensive to gather petition signatures to get measures on the ballot.

It is unnecessary and harmful, ensuring that only the wealthy-who already possess too much political power-can afford to use petition signatures to change the system.