

Submitter: Joel Hutchinson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB429

Adding to already failed restrictions to gun possession by law abiding citizens does nothing to curb the violence by people who are set on committing a crime. By imposing these restrictions you are dissarming law abiding citizens and exposing them to people who have no regard for the law. This will eventually become a state run by criminals and law enforcement will be overwhelmed with little or no help from a "well armed melitia"!