

Submitter: Darik Sparrell

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB697

If an individual is considered an adult at the age of 18 years old, you should be able to purchase a firearm at the age of 18 years old. If individuals 18 years of age can enlist into the military as an adult by themselves. They should have the right to purchase and possess a firearm. This SB is highly unconstitutional and should be thrown out immediately.