Purchase holds on firearms don't fix the real issue it's a feel good measure that can have fire consequences for someone in need to prescribe themselves
Fix mental health in this state until you can focus on the real issues you are failing your state

I have heard about the disingenuous things moms demand action does to submit testimony

And I feel that since a lot of our legislators cozy up them it seems like a trap for the citizens of this state being forced into agendas and not fixing problems
