Senate Bill 1154-1 threatens local decision making, property rights and creates yet another overreaching bureaucratic layer Oregon simply doesn't need and CANNOT afford.

This amendment grants unelected agencies excessive power to inspect private property, restrict rural development, and impose mandates without clear scientific evidence or due process. Farmers, homeowners, and rural communities will bear the brunt of these bureaucratic overreaches. Have we not damaged small farmers enough? I urge you to visit the existing laws, oversight and programs in the State of Oregon and bolster them if needed rather than create even more layers of government cost, regulations and restrictions.
