Hood River County District Attorney's Office Policy Manual

Discovery

The discovery obligations of the Hood River County District Attorney's Office are generally established by ORS 135.805 – 135.825; ORS 135.845 – 135.873; Brady v. Maryland, 373 US 83 (1963); Giglio v. United States, 405 US 150 (1972) and Rule 3.8 of the Oregon Rules of Professional Conduct. In order to meet discovery obligations in each case, prosecutors must be familiar with these authorities and with the judicial interpretations that discuss or address the application of these authorities to particular facts. In addition, it is important for prosecutors to thoroughly consider how to meet their discovery obligations in each case and consult with their supervisors for guidance whenever appropriate.

It is the practice of this office to disclose appropriate police reports and other discoverable materials to defense counsel at the earliest opportunity once a case is filed. In certain types of cases, sex offenses and cases involving domestic violence, discovery will be provided as soon as possible after arraignment.

Our office has an open file policy. All discovery contained in our criminal files are open and available at the Hood River County District Attorney's Office for defendants and their attorneys to come and look at, by appointment, free of cost. Copies of discovery materials are also made available to defendants and their attorneys once payment for the same has been made in full. Fees for discovery copies are set by the Hood River County District Attorney's Office and approved by the Hood River County Board of Commissioners.

Time Required: 10 M	inutes Contact: Jeffrey Good Phone
Requested Action:	Approve New Flat Rate Discovery Fee Schedule
Issue, Description & Background:	The purpose of this project is to establish a flat rate fee structure to meet the statutory requirement to provide Discovery on criminal cases. This will create a formalized, streamlined, billing system reducing labor and materials costs. The last established Discovery fee schedule put in place in 2020 was meant to be replaced with a flat rate schedule after our new case management system, the eProsecutor Discovery Portal, was implemented and tested in mid-2021. This structure was delayed as we learned our new system. It was brought to our attention in early 2023 the inefficiencies of our billing system and implementing the new flat rate structure was put on hold until we could best formulate a

Marion County. and to the parties The unofficial current fee schedule was temporarily put into place in July 2023 due to some emergent inconsistencies in the eProsecutor case management system. The proposed new flat rate structure will be more aligned with comparable counties, as well as benefit the county with regards to personnel cost savings, discovery tasks, and material reduction.
& External Agencies:	A new flat rate fee Discovery Fee Schedule would help streamline operations in the department and benefit the department with regards to personnel cost savings, reduction of time spent on discovery tasks, and material reduction. This will also help streamline the process for defense attorneys accessing the materials in the portal. Potential increase in overall discovery fees to defense attorneys.

Wheeler County- Policy Handbook

OVERIDING PRINCIPLES

The purpose of the Wheeler County District Attorney office is to protect the public by seeking justice. Ultimately, that is the overriding principle that governs our decision-making. The legislative branch is responsible for writing law. Ultimately, the laws they write are our primary policy manual. If any specific policy provision below conflicts with our ability to achieve our aim within the parameters of law, then pursuit of our stated aim will take precedence over any specific policy provision below. These policies are to be viewed as principles to follow rather than as strict edicts.

Discovery

The discovery obligations of the Wheeler County District Attorney's Office are generally established by ORS 135.805 – 135.825; ORS 135.845 – 135.855; Brady v. Maryland, 373 US 83 (1963); Giglio v. United States, 405 US 150 (1972) and Rule 3.8 of the Oregon Rules of Professional Conduct. In order to meet discovery obligations in a given case, prosecutors must be familiar with these authorities and with the judicial interpretations that discuss or address the application of these authorities to particular facts. In addition, it is important for the prosecutor to thoroughly consider how to meet the discovery obligations in each case.

It is the practice of this office to disclose appropriate police reports and other discoverable materials to defense counsel at the earliest opportunity once a case is filed. Our office has an open file policy. All discovery contained in our criminal files are open and available at the Wheeler County District Attorney's Office for defendants and their attorneys to come and look at, by appointment, free of cost. Digital copies of discovery materials are also made available for defendants. The prosecutor provides discovery to defense counselfollowing court appointment or when the attorney provides a notice or representation to the prosecutor. There is no charge for discovery.

Any and all written agreements entered into between the prosecutor and Wheeler County law enforcement agencies that relate to data retention and data sharing will be open and available to inspection by the public.
