Oregon needs to turn RED. The money grabbing control knuckleheads in Salem need to do the will of the people. Instead they are acting like dictators. Doing as they choose while filling their own pockets. They were voted in and act like an uppity bunch. More money, more control while traveling places they don't need to, on taxpayers dime. Leave our wells alone as we payed all the fees and did all the paper work. There is plenty of wasted water flowing into the pacific. I think that to be a politician in oregon you should have to been born here.
