Yet another day and more attacks on law abiding citizens. How can any court not throw this out? When does the great judicial system get sick of this nonsense? The 2nd amendment is rock solid and any attacks on the 2nd amendment by any sworn person to uphold the constitution is a traitor. Like wise any citizen that brings these measures forward should be looked at by the court as a traitor. There should be no question. Judges and lawyers swear to up hold and protect the constitution. This nonsense needs to stop!
