

Submitter:

Michael B

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2990

It is my understanding that the DMV no longer administers the driving test themselves, but instead people have to go through a 3rd party. The knowledge test shouldn't be reduced but expanded to ensure people understand state laws and being responsible on the road. I also hope that DMV isn't being funded to do driving tests that they no longer administer.