

Submitter:

Anne Murai

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2945

We cannot delay in creating the cleaner air and more stable climate of tomorrow. Greenhouse gas emissions are cumulative, meaning the more we reduce today, the more we avoid in future years. This is a great step in building more climate resilient systems, and protecting the health and wellness of children.