Baby boxes are symptoms of a failed system that inadequately support parents. Anonymous drop offs violate the rights of the child both legally and ethically and are very unsafe. Additionally this company monetizes abandonment and child procurement. Listen to adult adoptees. Our history matters. It affects our physical and mental health throughout our lives. To best support vulnerable children, support parents in need and support adoption. How about creating laws to encourage adoption, and appropriate education to our children regarding benefits of abstinence.
