

Submitter:

Jean Carter

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3489

AS a small woodland owner, I oppose the severance tax bill that will increase the severance tax, a tax we already pay when timber is harvested. OFRI an organization who champions timber management of Oregon's valuable natural resource, provides valuable information and support to the small woodland owner. I know Oregon needs more money to operate the state, but I believe better management rather than searching for it from woodland owners is the sustainable answer.