

Submitter: K Osvold

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: SB951

Health care must be between the provider and patient for medical purposes and within the context of fiduciary responsibilities. The state, corporate business, management entities have no function in the relationship of the physician, care provider and the patient. The profit motive, religious motive, organizational motive does not belong in the medical care model between medical practitioner and patient.