

Submitter:	Ransom Bodeen
On Behalf Of:	Myself
Committee:	House Committee On Education
Measure, Appointment or Topic:	SB1098

If anything is clear from the last 5 years of political management it's that Oregon is too diverse for a one-size-fits-all approach. Giving local boards more say empowers local communities to respond directly to issues in a way their constituency values the most. It allows for "boots on the ground", real face-to-face conversations, and promotes civic responsibility. Instead of imposing upon all communities, let them decide and deal with outliers apart. Respectfully, -Ransom Bodeen