

Submitter: Jessica Rogers

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3624

I oppose this because it will cost taxpayers more and homeschool families like myself, homeschool to have freedom from government oversight over our children. I have my kids test every year and pay for it in my own. It is not the responsibility of the state to pay for my children's testing.