I'm one more rent increase from losing the mobile home. I lived in for 13 years and it's breaking my heart. The majority of tenants are seniors many disabled like me. We rely on social security as our income. There is no added income to help with costs that keep rising. I like many others live alone and have nobody to help speak up for the needs of seniors and disabled. We feel intimidated by landlords and either learn to live with the situation or sell and move. I'm 72 years old and had planned to spend my final years in this community along with my friends. Sadly, that dream is now uncertain.
