

Submitter: Esme Singer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2977

The world of conservation is in desperate need of funding, having had so many funding cuts lately for many organizations that support conservation science, such as NOAA, the National park service, and the NSF. This bill would give conservation efforts in Oregon some of that funding back.