

Submitter: Emily Woodworth

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2977

I support this bill. It is crucial that tourism support directly the conservation of natural areas and species to offset tourism impacts. Oregon's current tourism tax is one of the lowest in the country. It is time to get with the times, especially given the uncertainty of Federal funding for this work.