I do not agree with this because it won't stop violent people; Just hinder law abiding citizens. What if a women is being stalked by a crazy ex and needs to get protection right away? Does she have to go to the black market to save her life because she has to wait 3 days for the ffl to release the weapon? Nope you guys make it clear you hate law abiding citizens. We pay attention to the pass bills you trying to still pass. Its not about saving lives, it about the state gaining more power over us.
