I am a gun owning democrat and oppose this. Waiting periods place vulnerable people under threat from stalkers, abusers, and gangs in danger but do not prevent suicide by individuals who already own firearms or choose to steal firearms to commit suicide.

The language around concealed carry restrictions makes it seem like the purpose is to make it too difficult for law-abiding CHL holders to know when and where they are not permitted to carry firearms.

As a democrat I think laws trying to erode the second amendment are only going to drive more votes to republicans.
