

Hoyt Arboretum Friends
Bringing people and trees together

A LIVING MUSEUM

As we approach the 100th anniversary of Hoyt Arboretum, we are partnering with members, neighbors, and Portland Parks & Recreation on a transformational project to elevate Hoyt Arboretum to meet the needs of the future.

Through expanded educational facilities, enhanced accessibility, and bolstered conservation research infrastructure, Hoyt Arboretum will continue to thrive as a center for learning, discovery, and stewardship.

SUPPORT $2 MILLION FOR HOYT ARBORETUM FRIENDS

Enhanced Educational Facilities ✓

Improved Accessibility and Visitor Experience ✓

Tripled Nursery & Greenhouse Capacity ✓

Waylon Buchan - 503.707.5756
Dale Penn - 503.510.2200

Hoyt Arboretum Friends

Bringing people and trees together

GROWING FOR THE FUTURE

Use of Funds	Amount
Education & Research Building	$10,150,000
Visitor Services Center	$1,600,000
Plant Nursery and Research Space	$650,000
Outdoor Gathering Spaces & Accessibility Features	$4,500,000
Energy Efficiency Upgrades	$1,100,000

$18M Total Project Cost

A Transformed Hoyt Arboretum

✔ Classroom Space

Two new classrooms will create capacity to serve 10,000 students annually. A new outdoor classroom will allow year-round learning experiences.

✔ Greenhouse & Nursery

Tripled space to conserve species that are threatened or endangered in the wild and to cultivate climate-resilient plants for the next 100 years at Hoyt Arboretum.

✔ Public Accessibility

Expanded, accessible trails and gathering spaces will enhance the visitor experience. Ten modern restrooms will accommodate the Arboretum's 400,000 annual visitors.

✔ New Visitor Center

The existing outdated and undersized facility will be upgraded to a New Visitor Center with enhanced educational exhibits and amenities.