

Submitter: Avery Lutter

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3365

I think it is super important for people to know about climate change and the effects of such. If people aren't educated about climate change, then it's much harder to do anything about it. People often don't want anything to do with things they don't understand.