

Submitter: John Duggan

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2977

One percent is a small amount in most lodging bills. Having worked for the Seattle Arts Commission and participated in their 1% for Art program, I saw how positive an impact it has on the city. Since tourism is one of the fastest growing income drivers in Oregon, anything that can be done to preserve the "draw" of our natural resources should be done.