

I deeply oppose any police departments ability to increase surveillance on people exercising their first amendment rights, especially the police of Portland who consistently overstep their power and lean heavily on military tactics against innocent citizens. Our children need education and food, our elders need housing. Reroute this effort into basic needs for our community members, no drones no more militarization.