

Submitter: Eamonn Reynolds

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3789

The law has no business here. A Union representative has no special position of authority - they are not a cop. The burden is on the union member or any citizen choosing to engage with any organization to ensure they are engaging with the correct person. Big concern here is that Unions would start using the law to silence opposition.