House Committee Members and the Oregon House:

Please help pass a House mirror bill for SB 181. I would argue that all research using chordates as models is medically unnecessary. This bill specifies dogs and cats, and that is a start to end the horrific suffering and killing perpetrated on non-humans, almost always out of the view of the public. Much is "curiosity" research and research related to grant-funded, career-maintaining "publish or perish" efforts. Close ONPRC, and send those imprisoned there to certified simian sanctuaries.
