I am against taking away all the hard work, skills, education and training that acupuncturist have had to undergo in order to master their career. I am against taking away their jobs by allowing Physical Therapists who have no where near the same amount of education, training or knowledge to come and perform acupuncture on me. I've gone to different acupuncturists at different phases on their journeys, and you get a sense of their experience and knowledge. And I would never trust anyone but a TRAINED and Licensured Acupuncturist ONLY, to insert needles into my body.
