It is time to stop the use of taxpayer funds to support cruel experiments on dogs , cats, and other sentient animals. With artificial intelligence and other means now available, such experiments are no longer needed. Researchers and companies will not find alternatives if cruel animal experiments, as currently set up, continue to be funded. A push is needed to modernize. European and other countries are ahead of the U S in eliminating animal cruelty. Please pass this bill and stop the funding. Dogs and cats should be beloved pets, not kept in cages to be cut up for humans.
