A delay in a purchase of a right is a right denied, no matter how short the delay.
Denying a right for even a millisecond is criminal under numerous US Codes.

This proposal if passed puts people's lives in danger as it delays the purchase of a defensive tool that might be needed by a single mother who filed a restraining order against an abusive partner. Remember a restraining order is just a piece of paper. Also remember law enforcement response times can be anywhere from a half hour to many hours IF law enforcement even shows up.
