

Submitter:

Shawn Powllison

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB243

The Second Amendment is part of the Bill of Rights and was added to the U.S. Constitution on December 15, 1791. It states, "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."