Please do whatever necessary to stop the testing on monkeys. They feel and think the way that we do. They are our closest relatives in the animal kingdom. Would you do this to another human? Or allow someone to do this to your children? It's insane we are still not yet evolved enough to care about something we do not see, we only read about, and are somehow able to just put it out of our minds. Our empathy is visibly low. Please vote to stop this insanity.
