I am in complete support of stopping the abuse and murder of these animals. I can't believe in this day and age they are still preforming these horrible acts and for no good reason. They should be concentrating on the humans and putting their money towards caring for them and supporting their staff. I refuse to donate any of my money I put towards charities to support to OHSU. Especially since this campaign to put a stop to this abuse has gone on this long and OHSU still has a deaf ear to our pleas for compassion and humane treatment of this animals. Action needs to happen now!!!!
