

I am writing in support of this important bill. Currently, teachers have a probationary period of 3 years. No other job/career has a probationary period that lasts that long. We have lost many highly qualified educators to this arbitrary practice.