

Submitter: Paul Sheprow

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2900

Speaking as an established public educator three years is simply too long. It isn't necessary, adversely effects educators of color and workers across a field that is over 70% women, and creates undue stress for new educators.