

Submitter:

J C

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3768

Why should we celebrate an ideology and / or religion that wants to kill all Americans, that openly calls America the "big Satan"? Iran wants to kill all Christians whom it calls infidels (non-believers) and Oregon wants to celebrate this? That is insanity. No, absolutely not. We are a country that tolerates many things, even some that it should not tolerate, but "tolerating" or even legislating an ideology that calls for our deaths is going too far. We are a Christian nation, not post-Christian as some claim, and our country is in the middle of a huge Christian revival. Today, 40% of Millennials attend church weekly in the US, up from 20% only five years ago. Just last week we had the biggest baptism in US history in Southern California. So no, we are a country that cherishes its life and faith, and no legislation can change that or should try to do so. In Jesus name, be blessed, and Shalom