

Submitter:

Irene Vora

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1003

This assisted suicide bill is extreme. It makes suicide too easily available and will result in suicides that would be prevented if people weren't encouraged in that direction. Vulnerable people might change their mind and not choose suicide if they had time to reconsider or weren't under pressure from others.