

Testimony – Assisted Suicide

I do not agree with assisted suicide. Life is precious. When my mother was dying of cancer, instead of ending her life prematurely, she spent every possible moment with my sisters and me. We treasure those moments to this day.