

As a geriatric geriatrician, I appeal to you, please oppose the expansion of doctor-assisted suicide. Vulnerable people will be pressured to end their lives. Remember that skillful hospice professionals can alleviate suffering without killing!