

Submitter:

David Redford

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1153

I have watched from afar the plight of the California farmers after the environmental folks got their way using legislation to save endangered species. That hasn't worked there. Can't we learn from mistakes made by others? When will common sense be a valuable commodity in our Oregon legislature?