

Submitter:

Nancy Nichols

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1153

A change to an existing water right should not degrade the environment. Moving the point of access up stream has the potential to reduce flow in a section so low that species that depend on water die. This change does not take away existing water rights, just makes sure that when a change is requested the environment is no worse.

I support this needed change.