

Submitter:

Linda Workman

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1153

Senate Bill 1153 is a bad bill intended to interfere with established and recorded water rights of property owners engaged in agriculture, farming and ranching. In Eastern Oregon many of the farms and ranches have water rights established over a century ago. We depend on our water rights to grow our crops and water our livestock. SB should be defeated in its entirety.