HB3974

Hello House Committee on Rules,

Please support House Bill 3974 so renters like myself can experience reduced financial hardship when looking for a place to live. In the past three moves over the past two years, every home I have applied to move into has required a $50 application screening fee. This fee is kept even if my application is denied.

The results of these screening fees is hundreds of dollars being lost just to earn the privilege of asking a property manager if I can move in. In my opinion fees like this should not exist at all. At the very least, they should be capped to $20 maximum.

Thank you very much,
Jacob Apenes
